INTERNATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

11th October

Ashoka Business School celebrated the International Day of Girl Child, as part of the gender sensitivity activity by organising a session of Adv. Indrayani Patani, renowned lawyer and Country VP of AIFWL, and Dr. Sarita Naik, Director, ULGC, Mumbai. 11th Oct holds importance as it eliminates the gender-based challenges that girls face around the world, including child marriages, discrimination, violence, and poor learning opportunities.

Adv. Patani spoke about the importance of the Rights of a Girl Child and elaborated upon each one of them. She also cited a few Supreme Court cases to highlight the importance of the rights. Dr. Naik spoke about the importance of Health and Nutrition for a girl child. Sensitization about one's own health and its effects on one's body is very important she said. She felt that women ignore their health and that it is generally accepted that women are born to suffer.
