Ashoka Business School had organised an online session of Mrs. Deepali Chandak, a well-known entrepreneur to speak on the topic 'Connecting the Dots'.

Sharing her experiences, she said that whatever happens, there is a reason behind it which can be understood only after the incident has happened. She also explained how building a positive attitude is most important for all the women. She said skills can be learnt, unlearned and updated only if one desires to do so. Students were asked to team up and play some games under her directions, thus making important concepts more clear. The active participation of the students made it a very enjoyable and informative session.
